"I say by the Spirit, it will be different in this place. Pastor it's going to be such an acceleration, oh my goodness, such an acceleration. An acceleration in every single way, in every single realm, the faith of the people is going to start accelerating. Not only just the building, the infilling of it, the finances, the revelation and the acceleration. You all will be running to keep up with it. It will be a deeper dimension, a deeper flow, from this time forward. You will sense it when you get up to preach; it will be a depth and a weightiness of the anointing, a depth of revelation made simple. And the grace that comes upon the man of God comes on in this place, the Pastor in this place, comes on the congregation. So say, 'Not only is my Pastor moving in a greater grace, I am moving in a greater grace. This church family is moving in a greater grace! We shall respond to it, we shall flow with it, and it shall be a blessing and we shall all go up together.' And the degree that you say it, and the degree that you believe it, will be the degree that you flow with it. So you determine the degree that you flow in that greater grace because now it comes to rest upon this place."
