

Word given to the church

“Some of you have had desires, but some of you have let them go. Some of you have given up on your desires. This is the hour where God is going to begin to move in those desires and move in that area of your life, like never before. There is a greater anointing being poured out and in that anointing it's not only provision, but also dreams and also desires and things being fulfilled. So, reach for that, believe for that, revive that, what I hear is resurrect that, resurrect that which you have let go, resurrect that in your spirit and begin to say out of your mouth, 'No, that desire will come to pass, that, what God showed me, will come to pass.' I will not let it slip because some of you have let it slip, that's why it's not moving. You got to say it to move it and if you don't say it, you aren't moving it. You got to say it to move it your way and those desires that you have and those things that God told you and those things, even prophetic words spoken over you in times past, you've let those words slip. That's why those words haven't done anything. Just seeds that remain in the ground with no water, they were seeds that remain in the ground with no sun, they were seeds that remain in the ground and haven't grown. Revive them sayeth the Spirit of God. Revive them, begin to speak, begin to reach, begin to believe me now sayeth God, now for those things to come to pass. For my Spirit is moving, my spirit is moving across the land and moving in the hearts of people to bring those things to pass that which I have spoken unto you. So don't let them wean and don't let them die out, begin to revive them with your words and you'll begin to see I'll move in your midst, I'll move on your behalf for I've longed to move in those areas, but I move in line with your words, so you've got to say it to move it. It's only dry because you're not praying, it's only dry because you're not moving forward, it's dry because you've chosen not to speak. It's only dry because you've chosen not to worship and praise and speak in the Holy Ghost for that I've told you in my word, that's what moves the Spirit and that's what brings a refreshing, that's what refreshes your life. Begin to speak much in the Holy Ghost, worship and praise and you will see that my spirit will saturate your life. Things will get lighter and easier...lighter and easier, for that's what I've ordained for you, light and easy. We thank you that we're moving forward in the name of Jesus!”
