

Exhortation Given By: Dr. Hattabaugh

Exhortation Given To: Church Body

Date: Sunday PM Service, December 1

You don't have to worry about the future; God's already been in it. No need to worry. No need to fret. No need to be upset about things. I'm telling you; the best is yet to come. The best is yet to come. The best is yet to come. Hallelujah. The best is yet to come. 2020 is going to be a fantastic year. It's going to be an awesome year. An awesome year of signs and miracles and wonders. Hallelujah. It's going to be a great year of change. It's going to be awesome. And I just choose to enter into it now. I choose to enter into all that God has for me. I choose to enter into all that God has for me.

Willing to make whatever changes I need to make. Willing to do whatever I need to do to enter into His fullness, to enter into His fullness. Some of you have been standing on things and believing God. Listen to me, don't give up on your faith. Don't give up on your faith. Hallelujah. I tell yeah, you think 2019 was something; 2020 is going to be a year of greater, a year of greater. Hallelujah. Praise God. Hallelujah. By the Holy Ghost, things are getting turned around. By the Holy Ghost, changes are taking place and I'm excited to be a part of what God is doing. Just a small part of a big plan, but I'm in it. Are you in it? Yeah, I'm in it, praise God. I'm in it. I'm moving with Him. I'm flowing with Him.

I was praying and asking the Lord about 2020, of course I'll share more on the first whenever we have our service, but I just kept getting up in my spirit, "No way to tell it. No way to tell it. How good it's going to be. No way to tell it." I'm telling you; it's going to be something. You don't want to miss it! Hallelujah. There's going to be a lot of changes in our nation. Going to rock the nation, but it's going to be good. When it all settles, it's going to be good. There's been a lot of rockiness so far, but I'm telling you, it's getting settled. Things are getting settled.

I told my wife in November, we were talking, and I said, "Something has happened. There's been a shift in the Spirit. Praise God. Something's happened." Amen. When you get on the other side of something you know it. I'm telling you, we got on the other side of something! You know, for the last year or two, it's just been a lot of pressure, a lot of pressure. There's still going to be pressure, but we just got on the other side of some things. I tell you, when you get on the other side of some things, you're grateful and you're thankful. Hallelujah. Praise God. Praise God. So, don't give up now; the best is yet to come! Glory to God.
